Gyllyngvase House

WELCOME

Gyllyngvase House Hotel is a friendly, family run hotel situated just 200m from the beautiful, safe and sandy Gyllyngvase beach with the town centre and harbour just a few minutes walk away.

As resident proprietors and with many years experience in the tourism and hospitality industry Emma and Paul Lower are always on hand to personally supervise all arrangements in this delightful small hotel where nothing is too much trouble.

Our aim is to provide a professional yet informal service to make you feel as comfortable as you would in your own home.

FACILITIES

The hotel has a large on-site car park and provides comfortable double, twin and family en-suite rooms all with television, tea and coffee making facilities and direct dial telephone. We also have a limited number of single rooms available.

There is a well-stocked licensed bar, spacious lounge and restaurant overlooking a lovely south-facing garden towards the sea.

Our extensive breakfast menu features local produce to be savoured and enjoyed at your leisure. Additionally, hot and cold snacks and beverages are available throughout the day and evening which can be enjoyed in our bar or restaurant or, if you prefer, in the privacy of your room.

We also offer a wireless Internet connection if required, in addition to providing a standard fax and email service.

To complete a relaxing stay we are pleased to be able to offer a full range of in-house beauty treatments.

FALMOUTH & SURROUNDING AREA

Falmouth, the world's third largest natural harbour, has a wealth of attractions. We are a short walk from the modern National Maritime Museum and only a mile from the scenic and historic Pendennis Castle.

Cornwall at large boasts a huge range of interesting and varied places to visit: from Land's End to St Michael's Mount; from the surf of the North Coast to the famous fishing port of Padstow; from the rugged beauty of the Lizard Peninsula to The Lost Gardens of Heligan; and of course, the ever popular Eden Project.

Falmouth and Cornwall have something for everyone, whatever your age, so why not make the Gyllyngvase House Hotel your base from which to experience it all.....
